

BROOKLINE HIGH SCHOOL
Department of Pupil Support Services

Dear Parent/Guardian:

As we enter these next crucial months in the college application process, we want to assure you that we will be meeting regularly with your son or daughter. As part of this process, we write a counselor recommendation or official school report for your son or daughter as a required part of the college application. College admissions committees look to us to highlight strengths and weaknesses, special qualities or accomplishments, explanations of unusual circumstances in academic or personal lives. We consider such areas as family background, hobbies, personal experiences, summer experiences, interests, values, special talents, explanations of the high school records (grades, test scores, etc.). Students review the recommendation before it is sent.

If you have suggestions for the recommendation of your child, please send them directly to your child's guidance counselor at the high school. Don't spend time worrying about your writing style. Your comments are just for the counselor to use as a guide. This information should be received by the guidance counselor as soon as possible. Parents of early admissions applicants should write to the guidance counselor immediately. Please check with your child to be sure he/she has completed the Student Self-Description Form and given it to his/her guidance counselor.

Sincerely yours,

The Junior Guidance Counselors
