College Essay Workshop for Seniors

This year the BHS PTO is once again sponsoring the college essay workshop for BHS seniors on Saturday, September 26, from 8:30am-12:30pm. This event run by BHS English teachers will support students at any stage in the essay-writing process from 'no idea what to write' to 'polishing a final draft' or anything in between. BHS teachers and parent volunteers provide guidance and support for this one-time event. More parent volunteers are needed. Sign up online to volunteer at the college essay workshop: <http://2009bhsptuworkshop.eventbrite.com/>

After the Prom Party (ATPP)

On the night of June 1, 2010, the Brookline community will host the 20th After the Prom Party for approximately 500 BHS seniors and their dates. A cast of many is needed for this annual party for seniors. This event has provided a safe, fun, and substance-free after-prom environment for the past nineteen years. The ATPP is an entirely volunteer effort, and its tremendous success depends on the work of dedicated committee chairs and hundreds of volunteers from the parent community and the wider Brookline community. If you'd like to be part of this important event, we invite you to join one of these committees: fundraising, decorations, food, prizes, program, chaperoning and set-up and clean-up.

We're also looking for two or three people to take over chairing the entire event: If you have a knack for party planning, consider apprenticing this year with the current party co-chairs, with an eye to chairing the After the Prom Party in 2011.

Don't wait! Sign up to volunteer for ATPP online: <http://bhsatpp2010.sign-up-sheet.com/>

Special Events

This committee organizes the annual PTO sponsored October staff-appreciation breakfast, the June staff-appreciation luncheon, Conversazione, as well as other PTO-sponsored events including the reception following the National Honor Society induction.
